I can't believe he did it. I swear, I rememner when he got roasted by Obama. He got cut deep.

Do you expect that you'll have to manually save democracy? It's hard for me to fathom the true scope through your lenses, but for us outsiders it seems like they might actually steal democracy away in broad daylight.

Gonna be pretty demoralising if it dies with a whimper.

there's a difference between DC and 'lots of white collar/blue collar jobs' and i wasn't just talking about your job where you rake in mad cash wolf of wall street style you big baller. good for you. that fucking bureaucracy in DC is as powerful as a president and corrupt as fuck. money shouldn't buy power like that. not like ted kennedy killing a girl and showing up drunk at a party the next day and just getting to go on scott free and be in senate for decades. but hey his family had lots of $ so they're cool amirite.

DC is as disgusting, corrupt, greedy, and criminal up and down, as Hollywood. the world would be better off if both were razed to the ground and the earth where they stood salted. maybe you're an ok guy, although it's easy to tell you're one of those guys who loves to show off how much money he makes which is actually gross, but in DC it's normal and everyone does it. just like how in LA everyone has to have headshots on them at all times in case they're discovered. the whole city revolves around filth, both of them. so maybe you're an ok guy but it's not just the politicians themselves, it's even people at your level who are part of the problem. DC gets to control the rest of us. and all you fucks care about is slurping all the gravy (which we provide) out of the trough.

none of that really equates to 'most white collar jobs'. most white collar jobs don't involve controlling or affecting people's lives all across the country. it's not just some non-chalant look at us bro we rakin in the coin, this is $$ city baybee. well it is but it wasn't supposed to be.

ORAIchain is the only company in the world merging A.I. algorithms into blockchain. doxxed team, partnerships, multiple full time devs. Fairly bullish.
unFederalReserve is a nice investment. B2B lending is a massive market and it's going to take a fuck load of time for adoption but the dev team is legit and they are making inroads ahead of anyone to capitalize on overnight lending. Cool stuff and the memes are choice.
BTC is for faggots that think china controlling the supply isn't an issue. kek.
Ether is a solid investment, Vitalik strong. You'll see a re-trace when BTC dumps eventually but it won't be as strong.

Catching them before the election was not an option. The desired outcome could only happen by catching them committing election fraud, which Trump did. The goal was to trap them and put them in JAIL.

It's a nice dream, just remember to watch some youtube videos first before you try swinging a hammer or laying down 3-tab. Subconsciously it must slowly eat away that you're such a helpless "man" compared to your ancestors. Probably one of the reasons you work out everyday. You know anon 100 years ago it was very common for almost every man to know how to build a house. Some even invented techniques like cordwood masonry so they could build without sawmills. Fascinating stuff. Most people don't realize you can actually use cured firewood as masonry for a wall!

It might very well turn out the way you think but its not because you had enough information to dismiss every other possible outcome. I mean ive witnessed this first hand in companies ive worked at, even people in highest management are clueless most of the time to whats really going on.

The constitution is dead then. Damn OP. I know you came here to share cool pics showing what it is like to be in the good Ol boys circle, but I'm really sad now. Not sure where to go in the world where I can be free of globalism. I'm a wealthy man who legit owns a bank, albeit, a mortgage bank, but this makes me really heartbroken to hear america is dead because it's blatantly obvious China disrupted our democracy. I think my goal in life is to build more wealth over the next few years and buy an island while it's still possibly affordable. Thanks..

Answer my question. You say everyone else is projecting, yet all you’ve do is call others low in losers. Seems like you’re the only one projecting.

Here’s what’s happening:
\>daddy works in WH but I’m not sure what he does
\>find some photos dumped on family network shared drive
\>head to pol for some tendies
\>shitty larp
\>boring photos
\>thinks crypto is hot
\>works in IT
\>can’t even figure out how to rotate a photo
\>uses ‘bro’ unironically in every comment

Ok dude. Daddy will be mad when he finds you are okay in with his work stuff

How do we regain liberty without secession? Half the country will blatantly disregard the constitution so that they get orange man bad out. They are literally committing treason. Makes no sense at this point. Really sad for our country today. Held hope until your post. If you're truly legit, I'll have to share a lot of sad news with some good people who were holding on to hope because of my enthusiasm for Trump being president for another rightfully earned 4 years.

The SS gets there. Secure the course. 100 guys. We know he's there because we got frisked before he showed up. We were on the 4th hole when SS comes up and asks "if we mind if the President plays through" of course we say yeah and talked to him before he teed off. He was with L. Graham that day. He started off with "How you hitting em today men?" And some other talk. Fun. And he recommended the hot dog at the clubhouse for lunch.
